Parents with babies and younger children may use the Browning Room, where a speaker relays the service. Children must be accompanied to or from the Browning Room and must never be left unattended.

Collect of the Week:

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer:

Almighty God, who hast taught us through thy Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love thee with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

Juan Gutiérrez de Padilla was born in Malaga, Southern Spain in c. 1590. He held posts at Jerez de la Frontera, as Maestro De Capilla back at Malaga (where he had received his musical training) and then from 1616 as Maestro at Cadiz Cathedral. He was in New Spain (an area now known as Mexico) by the autumn of 1622 as Cantor and Assistant Maestro at Puebla Cathedral. Following his promotion to the post of Maestro de Capilla in 1629, he remained in Puebla until his death in 1664. His compositional output shows him the equal of any peninsular composer in terms of both talent and technique.

In the Missa Ego flos campi (based on an unknown model) flowing melodic contours of the Old Spain are utilised, combined with the toe-tapping rhythms of the New Spain. The musical provision at Puebla was extravagant, including a choir of 14 boys and 28 men who sat in two rows facing each other. This arrangement lends itself well to the juxtaposition of the two opposing four-part choirs heard in this Mass. Frequent use of syncopation and repetition of text, perhaps for structural or didactic purposes, make this a work of great vitality.

His setting of Exultate justi is brilliant in its vitality.

Text and translation:

Exultate, justi, in Domino ; rectos decet collaudatio.

Confitemini Domino in cithara ; in psalterio decem chordarum psallite illi.

Cantate ei canticum novum ; bene psallite ei in vociferatione.

Quia rectum est verbum Domini, et omnia opera ejus in fide.

Diligit misericordiam et judicium ; misericordia Domini plena est terra.

Verbo Domini caeli firmati sunt, et spiritu oris ejus omnis virtus eorum.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

Praise the Lord with harp : sing praises unto him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings.

Sing unto the Lord a new song : sing praises lustily unto him with a good courage.

For the word of the Lord is true : and all his works are faithful.

He loveth righteousness and judgement : the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made : and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

Andrew Parnell (b. 1954) is a British organist and harpsichordist, and from 1976 was Assistant Master of the Music at the Cathedral and Abbey Church of St Alban, as well as Master of Music and choirmaster at St Albans School, where he founded the St Albans Abbey Girls' Choir in 1996, which is now a regular part of the worshipping community. Oculi omnium is an atmospheric setting of verses from Psalm 145, originally scored for ATTB, it is here transposed up a minor third, thus making it suitable for SATBB. Even at the higher pitch this largely homophonic piece retains a rich sonority.
