There is an extant letter from the Revd Daniel Boote, Portman Street, Portman Square, London, to [W.H.C. Cavendish-Bentinck] 3rd Duke of Portland; dated 29th June 1772, discussing arrangements for the ownership and patronage of a chapel [presumably at Lisson Grove], mentioning the involvement of a Mr Bliss.

Another letter from Mr Thomas Bliss to [W.H.C. Cavendish-Bentinck] 3rd Duke of Portland of 17th June 1772 refers to the Revd Harley's informing the duke of a new church at Lisson Green 'which it was worthy Your Grace's Purchasing'; expresses the wish for the duke to own it rather than 'that it should fall into the hands of Dissenters, who have already made application to me on that head and offered very advantageous terms'.
